Vaaton Na Vadaa

“One world many stories”

Date : 22nd August 2017

Venue : R A Podar College of Commerce & Economics

The flagship event of GLC for the year 2017-2018 was “Vaaton na Vada”. Like the past four years “Vaaton na Vada” was conducted this year with the same amount of fun and enthusiasm. This being the literary event aims at spreading the language and literature of Gujarat amongst the students in a way that gives them fun and enjoyment.

The participants had to come in pairs where they were put in a true test of story narration and spontaneity when they had to spin an imaginary tale in Gujarati on the basis of random pictures flashed on the spot. Zeal and Vidhi had great co-ordination with each other and they weaved a beautiful tale effortlessly whereas the hilarious performance by Rahil and Nikita had the audience in splits. Drashti and Rudra being the youngest amongst all the participants showed great amount of confidence.

The winners of the event were:

Zeal and Vidhi

Our judge for the event Miss. Venu mam who is a faculty of Podar college also appreciated the students for the confidence and enthusiasm and showed her support to the organizing committee for future GLC events.

Navratri

Date: 29th September,2017

Venue: R. A. Podar College of Commerce and Economics

Gujarati literary circle and Marathi literary circle together celebrated navratri by organising Garba and Bhondla this year also with same amount of enthusiasm .The event was held on 9th day of navratri on 29th September,2017 at 11am in the auditorium.

Navratri being the festival of "Goddess Durga",it was decided that a message of women empowerment be spread amongst the students of the college .Mrs. Mamta Kulkarni (Matunga Station Manager,Central Railway) was the Chief Guest of the event.

The event commenced with the Aarti followed by felicitation of chief guest.The Aarti thaali was prepared by a student of the college. After aarti bhondla was celebrated by students' performances. Later Garba songs were played, and not only students but also the teachers of the college matched their steps to the beats of the songs. Group of students played garba and dandiya energetically. The celebration came to an end with a formal vote of thanks

AASWAAD

DATE: 1ST FEBRUARY ,2018

VENUE: AUDITORIUM, R.A.PODAR COLLEGE

Gujarati Literary Circle organised "Aaswaad", the food festival on 1st February,2018 at 10 am in the college auditorium. Principal mam inaugurated the event by cutting the ribbon at the entrance of the auditorium.This year was the second time ,this event was organized. The event featured popular dishes of Gujarati cuisines like Thepla, Dhokla, Sevkharni and some popular chaats like Bhel, Sevpuri, Khaasta Kachori. Sweet like Jalebi papdi and thirst quencher like Jaljira paani completed the menu.This year games like Tongue twisters and Three dice were organised in the event which was a special attraction amongst the students,teachers and the staff members.

The team Aaswaad with the guidance of their mentor Mrs. Karishma Khadiwala organised the event successfully which brought praises and special mentions from the teachers. Many of the food items were homemade by the students which attracted those staffmembers and the students who usually don't eat outside food.The team which consisted of both Gujarati and Non-Gujarati members showcased their love for the culture by wearing traditional outfits wherein the core members coordinated each other by dressing up in Gujarati traditional Kotis.

Principal mam and Vice principal mam appreciated the hardwork of the team and said that "the food was nice,simple and tasty".Gujarati Literary Circle will continue to spread the importance of Gujarati Language,culture and its grandeur by organising such interesting and promising events
