

College Magazine- Podar Pageant

Chief Editor: Dr. (Mrs.) Shobana Vasudevan

Professor-in-charge: Ms. Vrushali Bhosale- Kaneri

Student Editors: Ms. Sneha Semaleesan and Ms. Smruti Samant

A phenomenon or happening that inspires others to dream, achieve or perceive something differently, that's what we call a "Eureka" moment. We, at Podar Pageant, believe that just like Archimedes, a lot of our peers also must have had moments that inspired them to ideate further. Thus, it occurred to us that there needs to be a platform for these ideas to be shared so that the stories and inspirations could be passed on, creating a chain reaction.

This time, the magazine had a very different layout and had sectional pages (to help in differentiating between each section). In order to do something new, the committee added two new sections to the Magazine. Firstly, a section called "Start-ups" was introduced, wherein the team interviewed the initiators of various fests to understand their vision and purpose behind launching the respective fests. Secondly, a section called "Memes" was introduced to include the fun, College-related memes and jokes. This served as a light corner and was well appreciated by both the students and faculty.

After months of hard work, Podar Pageant 2019 had a special launch by the Principal of our College and Editor-In-Chief of our Forum- Dr. (Mrs.) Shobana Vasudevan on 16th December, 2020. The occasion was graced by the presence of all Degree College Teachers and student editors.
