

GENDER-WISE

Girls passed Boys passed
Appeared Success rate

PARA-ATHLETE ACES HER BOARDS

COMMERCE

Isha Damle
98.76% RA Podar College (In pic, left)

Missing an arm never stopped the Kalyan girl from acing whatever she set her eyes on, whether sports or academics. The national-level para swimmer's twin, Ishada, too scored a good 93.69%

“Despite my condition, I have never used a writer. I write on my own and usually finish within the regular time slot. I study with my sister. Having a twin in the same class helps. Now we plan to pursue chartered accountancy along with BCom

ARTS

Preet Jain 96% | Jai Hind College
“I was hoping to get good marks, but was not expecting 96%. I want to crack the civil services exam later, but now want to pursue law from National Law University or Govt Law College

SCIENCE

Dhruv Rambhia 97.2%
Pace Junior Science College | Andheri

“All year long, I have focussed on my JEE preparation. I studied for the board exams only in the last month and am glad I could ace them. Now I have my eyes set on the engineering entrance exam so that I can get admission into one of the premier IITs or research institutes in the country

COMMERCE

Shreya Doshi
96.15%
RA Podar College

Mustafa Jawadwala
95.23%
KC College

ARTS

Sanjana Rammath
94.3%
Jai Hind College

SCIENCE

Kaustubh Chourasia
96.62% Pace Junior Science College | Borivli

Rushabh Maru
96.62% Pace Junior Science College | Thane

Deepali Nayak & Astha Sharma 94% | Mithibai College

MUM'S PASS RATE LOWER THAN STATE'S

