‘SYNERGY’ by SYBCOM A

Event overview:

On 17th August 2022, SYBCom A students gathered for 'Synergy,' a unique management carnival that stood out. A month of planning advised by Mrs. Karishma Khadiwala, paved the way. The day was a mix of fun and learning, with activities crafted by dedicated department heads. From the exciting 'King's Game' to the brainy 'Management Quiz,' each event was a blend of education and joy. The 'Robotic Team' showcased communication skills, while 'Household Management Games' turned daily items into competitive fun. The 'Harry Potter Corner' shared management lessons through charts and a Quidditch game. Dramatic presentations on 'Management through Bollywood' and 'Significance of Management' added flair. 'Management Gurus' explored wisdom from Henry Fayol and Chanakya. The 'Hierarchical Model of Level of Management' visually unfolded organizational structures.

Objective:

'Synergy' aimed to break traditional learning barriers, offering interactive education through games, dramas, and quizzes. The goal was to nurture teamwork, communication, and leadership skills, making managerial concepts enjoyable.

Learning Outcomes:

- The 'King's Game' and 'Robotic Team' emphasized collaboration and teamwork.
- 'Management Quiz' and 'Household Management Games' applied theoretical knowledge practically.
- Dramas highlighted the importance of clear communication and leadership.
- 'Harry Potter Corner' and 'Marketing Department' honed creativity in conveying lessons.
- 'Management Gurus' and 'Hierarchical Model' sessions provided insights into organizational structures.

‘EBULLIENCE’ by SYBCOM E

Event Overview:

On 15th September, 2022, SYBCOM E students organized a memorable event, a quiz show called 'Ebullience.' The event aimed to go beyond typical learning experiences and infuse a lively spirit into their creation. Various departments, each with specific roles, worked together to bring Ebullience to life. Weeks of planning, class meetings, and a well-maintained spreadsheet marked the progress, all overseen by the class representative. As anticipation grew, the class used Instagram to spread the word. On the big day, the auditorium transformed, creating an atmosphere that matched their vibrant vision. With the support of the principal and vice principal, the event began at 10:30 a.m., unfolding like a captivating story of intellect, reaching its peak at 1 p.m. Ebullience became a testament to teamwork, creativity, and the unity of a student body navigating the maze of learning with enthusiasm.

Event Objective:

Ebullience aimed to foster collective engagement and intellectual camaraderie within the E division of the commerce class. Through a quiz show, the learners sought to break traditional learning boundaries, providing a platform that celebrated knowledge, teamwork, and creativity. The goal was to offer a unique and enjoyable educational experience for participants across all years and courses.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Learners developed essential teamwork skills, collaborating across departments for a common goal.
2. The organization of Ebullience enhanced learners' event management skills, offering practical insights into real-world project coordination.
3. Through updates and meetings, learners improved communication skills, effectively articulating ideas and progress.
4. Facing challenges during planning, learners cultivated problem-solving abilities and adapted to unforeseen circumstances.
5. Department heads and the class representative took on leadership roles, fostering responsibility and accountability.
6. Creating an Instagram presence and promoting the event honed marketing skills, showcasing their ability to attract attention creatively.

‘UNICON’ by SYBCOM F

Event Overview:

On 26th August, 2022 SYBCOM F organized an event named 'Unicon' to give students a taste of real-world management and leadership. The brainchild of a class meeting, Unicon aimed to immerse learners in management roles through a Shark Tank competition. Under the guidance of Mr. Sanjay Dhage, the team crafted rules, medals, and certificates for recognition. Financial details were sorted out in discussions, ensuring smooth execution. The day, graced by Principal Dr. Shobana Vasudevan and others, witnessed a well-rehearsed Shark Tank competition. Post-event reflections praised the effort. Unicon wasn't just an event; it was a tapestry of shared experiences. The objective was practical learning beyond classrooms. Learners embraced responsibility, fostering a sense of achievement. The event became a crucible of growth, propelling the team into a fun-filled learning journey. Learners discovered the art of maintaining team spirit, a crucial skill for future projects. Unicon, at its core, was a celebration of unity and learning.

Objective:

Unicon aimed to immerse learners in practical management and leadership, transcending traditional boundaries through a Shark Tank competition.

Learning outcomes:

1. Learners understood the importance of taking ownership, fostering responsibility.
2. Engaging with diverse groups developed strong teamwork skills.
3. Hands-on involvement provided practical experience in event organization.
4. The event showcased leadership dynamics and the pivotal role of leaders.
5. Promotion and creative departments enhanced communication skills.
6. Learners valued maintaining positive team spirit for future collaboration.

‘RETRO STOCK’ by SYBCOM G

Event Overview:

On a lively Tuesday morning, SYBCOM G students showcased their creation, Retro Stock, at R.A. Podar College of Commerce and Economics. Guided by Dr. Vinita Pimpale, the event unfolded on September 13, 2022, bringing financial concepts to life in a fun retro-themed setting. The heart of the event was the Retro Stock game, featuring companies like Reliance and TATA Motors. Learners, experienced a mock stock exchange with real market fluctuations, creating an immersive learning opportunity. Other games included Corporate Housie, Quizzards of Oz, and Commerce Taboo, designed for both entertainment and financial literacy. The Creatives team transformed the venue into a nostalgic space with disco-themed stalls and bear and bull cutouts. Memorable quotes, banners, and a retro TV photo booth added charm. Digital Creatives and Promotions teams utilized social media to reach a wider audience, gaining 10,000 views on Instagram. Technical expertise ensured smooth transitions, audio enhancements, and overall event success.

Objective:

SYBCOM G aimed to boost financial literacy and understanding of financial markets through Retro Stock. The event featured engaging activities, quizzes, and a mock stock market experience, imparting practical knowledge and commercial awareness.

Learning Outcomes:

Participants gained practical insights into financial concepts and market dynamics through Retro Stock. Commerce Taboo enhanced critical thinking and industry-specific vocabulary. Managing the mock stock market fostered strategic thinking and decision-making. Quizzards of Oz broadened knowledge of historical financial events. Learners developed teamwork, event management, and creative presentation skills. Retro Stock wasn't just an event; it was a journey into finance, blending creativity, education, and technological finesse.
